Don't Let the Elevators Go Down

We cannot allow more than SEVEN people in an elevator at one time. They are fragile and break easily. Do not go up to go down (or vice versa). Our elevator hosts are emptying the elevators on 1 & 16. You will be sent to the back of the line. Be patient.

Also, don't wear long, flowing garments onto the escalator, which find such things delicious. The hotel has asked us not to feed them (again).

Arisia Gives a Duck

This is your last chance to be part of the Arisia Duck Hunt. Rubber duckies have been hidden all around the hotel. If you find one, turn it in at the Dealers' Room on the 14th floor for a prize.

Pay Back the Karma

It takes a lot of people to make Arisia the smooth-running and enjoyable event that it is, and even an hour or two of volunteering will help. Work 8 hours, and get a neat "Volunteers" t-shirt. You can also earn prizes (SWAG, FREEBIES, and COOL STUF) and, if you work 12 hours or more, a free membership to Arisia 2008. Come to room 205 to sign up now.

Work late for extra points. All volunteer hours earned after 5 PM will count as time-and-a-half.

We always need help with tear-down.

Happy Birthday, Luke Ski!

Free Parking is available in the MIT lots or West Garage:

1. Make a left out of the hotel main entrance (Amesbury St.).
2. Go to the end of street and make a right turn onto Vassar Street.
3. Lots & garage are about 1/2 mile down on the left.

Shuttle Schedule

Due to construction, all shuttles will stop across the street from the hotel entrance.

Kendall Square (Marriott)

Shuttle stops at MBTA Station entrance on Main Street behind the Marriott
Sunday: 8AM to 6:30 PM

Central Square Shuttle

Shuttle stops at large bus shelter in front of Foot Locker at 580 Massachusetts Avenue
Sunday: 11 AM to 3:30 PM

Shuttles will stop (upon request) or can be flagged down at the MIT West Garage.

Coat Check Extended (and Not Just for Long Coats)

Coat Check is extending their Sunday hours to 3 PM.

So long, and thanks for coming.

See you at Arisia 2008.
